CURRAN SAYS HYLAN DELUDES ITALIANS

Accuses the Mayor of Falsely Posing as La Guardia's Friend to Get Votes.

WINS BROOKLYN SUPPORT

New Ally of Coalition Calls Hyland's Regime Wasteful, Blatant and Boastful.

"Wasteful, extravagant, blatant and boastful"—such is the Hyland administration as pictured in a resolution adopted after Henry H. Curran, coalition candidate for Mayor, spoke to representatives of 15,000 voters of Italian descent in Brooklyn last night.

Mr. Curran addressed the Kings County League of Italian-American Republican Clubs at a dinner at the Bessert Hotel. He made the crowd laugh with his description of Mayor Hyland trying to catch the "Italian vote," going about the city among Italians and praising Aldermanic President La Guardia, whom he was equally vehement in denouncing up to a short time ago.

Mr. Curran told how Mr. La Guardia had rallied to his support following defeat at the primaries. Referring to Mayor Hyland's recent criticism of Mr. La Guardia, Mr. Curran said:

"I think that is the clumsiest attempt to fool the friends of Mr. La Guardia and the people of our party that I have ever heard of. It is just such tactics that have made the Hyland administration a failure. Two years ago Mayor Hyland was very bitter against Mr. La Guardia."

"We're all for the five cent fare," Mr. Curran also said in his brief speech. "We are not going to have anything in this city except the five cent fare. This is a five cent city when it comes to rapid transit. We are agreed as to that. Mayor Hyland knows it, and what is there to say about it? There is no issue there."

League Denounces Hyland.

Nicholas Salvaggi, Assistant District Attorney of Kings county, was chairman of the dinner. Other speakers were Senator Charles C. Lockwood, Vincent Gilroy, District Attorney Harry E. Lewis and United States Senator William M. Calder. The league, which has branches in every Assembly district of the borough, unanimously adopted this resolution:

"Whereas, it being manifest to all public spirited citizens that the present Hyland-Tammany administration has proved itself rankly inadequate as a city government, and

"Whereas, it being notorious that John F. Hyland, the Mayor, while masquerading as the champion of the five cent fare demagogically of the people of this city, has secretly connived with local railroad officials to increase subway, surface and 'L' fares to seven cents, and

"Whereas, it is a deplorable fact that carfare in the Borough of Brooklyn has increased from five cents to ten and fifty cents to reach ordinary destinations, despite appeals to the present administration, and

Talks to Roosevelt Club.

Mr. Curran also attended the meeting of the First Assembly District Roosevelt Club, a political organization of men and women, at 148 Gold street, Brooklyn. There he repeated the speech he made at the Bessert Hotel.

In the afternoon he spoke to the Bay Ridge Recreation Grounds Association in the naval barracks at Bay Ridge avenue and Shore Road. Many school children were there including boys and girls in scout uniforms. Mr. Curran told of the Board of Estimate having voted unanimously to restore the recreation grounds, which were taken by the Government for naval barracks in wartime.

Mr. Curran was applauded for saying he would continue to advocate the removal of the many buildings on the site. He said it was up to the Sinking Fund Commission, of which he hoped soon to become a member.

"Resolved, That it is the league's firm and vigorous intention to support the candidacy of Henry H. Curran for Mayor of the City of New York, and we pledge ourselves to band together to keep the Tammany Tiger from crossing the bridge into Brooklyn."

Because Samuel Maier, or Meyer, of 21 West 118th street, has a wife who he alleges "has anarchistic ideas," Supreme Court Justice Finch refused yesterday to grant him citizenship, since that act would automatically make her a citizen too. Under the name of Samuel Meyer the rejected applicant runs a jewelry and watchmaking business in Long Branch, N. J. Justice Finch's decision was made in a case that came before him several months ago when he sat in the naturalization term, and started the innovation of having wives appear in court and swear allegiance to this country along with their husbands.

"There is sufficient reason for such requirement," his decision explains. "It prevents undesirable aliens from being added to the citizenship, and, on the other hand, it requires the taking of a definite, formal oath of renunciation of the old allegiance and the swearing of allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States."

"From the standpoint of the individual it prevents citizenship being thrust on her against her will. It dignifies womanhood. Moreover, because of the independent political rights now granted to women there should be a definite oath of allegiance taken by them."

"In the case at bar the wife of the applicant failed to appear and the case was adjourned to permit her to do so. The applicant now submits an affidavit alleging his wife has refused to appear with him; that she has stated that she does not wish to become a citizen of this country, and that he has learned that two of his cousins were affiliated with an anarchistic organization in Russia, and that he believes his wife has anarchistic ideas."

"While it may be a hardship on the applicant to deny him admittance because of the above mentioned facts, nevertheless it is of greater importance that an alien of the character his wife is alleged to be should not be admitted to citizenship. It seems that the court therefore should exercise its discretion in denying naturalization to this applicant until a situation arises which will not admit to citizenship a person of the character of this applicant's wife, as shown by the affidavit submitted by him."

Barbers' wage scale retained; strike off

A threatened barbers' strike has been called off through an agreement to continue the present scale of wages. J. Epstein, secretary of a local of the Journeymen Barbers Union, said yesterday. There are 6,000 union barbers in the city affected by the agreement. The employers had proposed a 10 per cent cut.

Secretary Epstein said the International Barbers' Union had sent out instructions to resist wage reductions everywhere, and that all proposals for reduced wages would be rejected.

as playgrounds before we suffered the calamity of Hylandism. I see closed streets for the children to play in and at the head of those streets there are placards telling the world that Mayor Hyland closed these streets for the children. And I recall that Mayors Gaynor and Mitchell did it and not Hyland. The docks and wharves carry banners announcing them to be the children of Hylandism, and some of these thus belittled docks were there ten years ago. "I saw the moon-to-night as I arrived here and looked at her shudderingly lest she be draped with a cheese-cloth flag announcing her as the creation of our extraordinary Mayor. You see the point of this?"

"This it is you are paying his campaign expenses. You are defraying his expenses. In the meantime this coalition ticket headed by Mayor Curran looks about it for those ogres of great wealth and vast cruelty who Hizzoner tells you are behind us with gold bags and magnificent motor cars. We have no such roads to unlimited wealth that Hylandism has. He has not attempted to reply to questions of why Gen. Du Pont, Allan Ryan and Dr. Harris of the Guggenheim interests are so closely connected with his police commissioner. And, getting back to our friend La Guardia, I wonder whether Hyland would shed his crocodile tears were he informed that the day after the primaries this 'little wop' came to me and asked me to take a place in his office as his assistant that I might be more familiar with the routine work of that office and thus enter it with much of the detail cleared away?"

"He is told to tell you that it is not the man but the principle that you should vote for. He is utterly right. He was correctly coached that time. But a vote for him is voting for the principle of Tammany and for the man Murphy, the autocrat of Fourteenth street—the man without party, who does not believe in democracy nor a democracy who believes in Murphy and Murphy alone."

"The people? My friends, you are business men; men of brains and understanding. Is he going to get away with that?"

Registration being completed, both the Republican-Coalition and Democratic campaigns will go ahead under full steam this week.

The organization for the former, which is to handle the fight for the Curran-Lockwood-Gilroy city ticket, has been completed, and every one is expected to be in his or her place at the Murray Hill headquarters to-morrow morning ready to start the intensive three weeks' fight.

Henry W. Taft is chairman of a general committee of 250, the members of which will be announced to-morrow. Charles D. Hillis, as chairman of the budget committee, or board of strategy, will have much to do with the actual conduct of the big fight. Other members are Joseph M. Price and United States Senator William M. Calder. They will meet at 9:30 each morning to lay out plans and make appropriations, if needed, to carry them out. John J. Lyons, nominally the Curran manager, will be one of the most potent forces in the campaign.

Mr. Price is supposed to represent all the independent elements in the fight, but William Jay Schieffelin of the Citizens Union and Miss Mary Wood have been named as chairman and vice-chairman respectively of what is to be known as the cooperating committee. Miss Charlotte Farrar, well known suffrage worker, will be secretary of the committee. Former Magistrate Frank L. O'Reilly will open Brooklyn headquarters for independence.

Samuel P. Hyman of the Independent Democrats, will be the personal manager for Vincent Gilroy, candidate for President of the Board of Aldermen, with headquarters in the Murray Hill. Senator Charles C. Lockwood, candidate for Comptroller, has separate headquarters in the Bristol Building, 600 Fifth avenue, with Ernest Harver as his personal manager. He has opened headquarters in Brooklyn and in The Bronx. Representative Ogden L. Mills will be treasurer of the finance committee of this coalition committee.

The Republican organizations in the five boroughs will be responsible for the campaigns of the candidates on the local tickets. Harold G. Aron, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the New York County Committee, will take a desk at headquarters, 105 West Fourth street, to-morrow. He has trained some 500 speakers. Samuel M. Koenig, head of the organization, sent a personal letter to each of the twenty-three district leaders asking them to cooperate in arranging meetings. It is planned to have at least 100 indoor meetings during the last two weeks of the campaign. To the women's division has been given the responsibility of the outdoor meetings.

Capt. Benjamin M. Day is training a corps of men and women to act as canvassing inspectors and watchers on election day. Many of them are lawyers and former service men. Every effort will be made to prevent a repetition of the frauds of last year and the year before.

"As a business man with a lifetime experience in New York city, with a love for my community and her proud position as the first city in the world, I cannot see why any self-respecting business man who has the best interests of his city at heart, can vote for Mr. Hyland," wrote Albert Behning, prominent piano manufacturer, to George W. Loft, treasurer of the Tammany campaign committee, yesterday. "Within my recollection of Mayors—and I happen to be a grandfather—I have never known one who has been more of a buffoon and less of a Mayor. I shall do all I can to elect Henry Curran, Mayor. He is the best qualified man."

Mr. Behning had been asked to support Hyland.
